

Generation 2

50nodes
20apps

The scatter plot displays the relationship between two variables across 50 nodes and 20 applications. The blue dots represent the nodes, and the orange dots represent the applications. A red 'x' is located in the upper left quadrant. The data points show a strong negative correlation, with values decreasing as the x-axis variable increases.

50nodes 20apps

